

Landulph School 22nd October Newsletter 2009

Half term followed by an inset day

Half term is from Monday 26th October to Friday 30th October and is followed by an inset day on Monday 2nd November. We look forward to seeing you all again on Tuesday 3rd November.

Christmas Diary dates

The Christmas Production will take place in the Landulph Memorial Hall, performances will be held at:-

4pm on Thursday 10th December
&

6.30pm on Friday 11th December

More details to follow.

Monday 14th December, Christmas Disco

Tuesday 15th December, classroom Christmas parties.

Wednesday 16th December, Christmas Lunch

Friday 18th December, Short carol service at 9.30am. All very welcome.

Landulph Festival of Music and Art

Thank you, to all those who were able to come along and support the school's contribution to the Landulph Festival, it was wonderful too see so many of you.

Also this was the first performance of the newly formed Class 3 junk band, who, guided by Mr Chapman, gave a fantastic performance.

Switch Off Fortnight 2nd – 15th November

After half term we will be joining in the national "Switch Off Fortnight" program, where we will be encouraging all of our school community to switch off lighting and appliances. We have been provided with a number of resources to raise awareness of this scheme during the fortnight.

Woodwind lesson cancelled

I have been advised by Mr Ayres, the woodwind teacher, that he is unable to visit the school to give woodwind tuition on Tuesday 3rd November.

Breakfast club and Tuck

Please be aware that Breakfast club and tuck will not run during the first week back after half term. Thank you.

Eco Club

Unfortunately Eco club will not run on Tuesday 10th November but an additional club date will be Tuesday 24th November.

Road Safety

Cornwall Council has a range of reflective items that are available for purchase at cost price, to help children to Be Safe and Be Seen on the roads this winter. These items include reflective shapes, smiley's, children's umbrellas and arm bands. Please contact the school office for an order form.

Chess Sets

We are eager to set up a lunch time chess club in school. If you have any complete chess sets and boards that you no longer require and would be able to donate to the school, we would be very grateful. Thank you.

Week 4 menu

On the first week back after half term, school dinners will resume on the week 4 menu.

Flora Cooking with Schools

Keep an eye out for the Flora Cooking with Schools scheme that will start again in January 2010. This will be the final year that this scheme will be run. Please help us and get everyone collecting and registering as many tokens as possible so that we can receive even more great cooking equipment. Thank you.
